

Tara Furman

Tara Furman founded Knowing God Ministries (KGM) in 2007. A dynamic leader who inspires women to make a difference, Tara has spent more than a decade speaking to women of all ages and across denominations.

As KGM's President, she also helps set vision for the nonprofit's monthly luncheons as well as its annual women's conference and mother/daughter retreat. Tara has self-published multiple prayer journals and Bible studies in addition to a book on marriage entitled "The 7 Day Challenge." Before founding KGM, she spent 12 years involved in the international organization of Bible Study Fellowship.

An engaging and relevant speaker, Tara believes in the inerrancy of Scripture and its applicability to lives today. Her messages are personal and apply Scripture to topics that resonate with women, making her a sought-after speaker who is often invited back.

Tara grew up in Cary, NC where she married her high school sweetheart in 1995. They continue to live in Cary with their two teenagers and Jake, their yellow lab (who should have been named Marley!) She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Tara believes knowing God in the messiness of everyday life will forever change a woman's life. It's certainly changed her life!

FUN FACTS ABOUT TARA:

Her favorite color is PINK or any bright happy color. She is obsessed with organizing closets, family time and politics.

Tara's favorite foods are anything fried, muffins, vegetables and dark chocolate. She is a lover of traditions. Her favorite tradition is a big Sunday meal with family and a pie made from scratch (preferably chocolate or lemon).

Some of Tara's favorite things: coffee time with Jesus in the early morning; going to a good movie; watching sunrises or sunsets; sitting on the beach under an umbrella reading a good book!
